() JURY TRIAL

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Case called for pretrial hearing.

Plaintiff's first motion in limine argued and granted, in part, to exclude testimony to criminal or motor vehicle violations; denied as to testimony of other

MOTIONS: civil suits, but only to extent to show bias or prejudice on part of witnesses.

Plaintiff's second motion in limine filed and argued.

Court rules witness is not permitted to offer testimony as to law.

Defendant's opposition to video depositions argued. Court rules Dr. Rautenberg's deposition admitted but sustains defendant's objections to testimony as to any problems attributed to hemorrhoids.

Defendant's objections to Dr. Whitten's deposition overruled.

Defendant's objections to Dr. Gneundlich's deposition sustained as to opinions not expressed with reasonable degree of medical probability and as to cost of future treatment; overruled as to statement "incapacitated by the accident".
